

CODIB-D-109
2 April 1964

UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

COMMITTEE ON DOCUMENTATION

Exploitation of Foreign Language Publications

1. In accordance with the provisions of NSCID No. 2, paragraph 9, and DCID No. 2/4, the Foreign Documents Division (FDD), Office of Central Reference, CIA exploits foreign language publications as a service of common concern to USIB agencies, coordinating this service with similar activities maintained by the other intelligence departments or agencies.

2. CIA proposes to review its current exploitation program to determine the degree to which it is meeting the needs of the intelligence community for information from foreign language publications.

3. The CODIB principals are accordingly invited by CIA to designate appropriate personnel to participate in the forthcoming review of the exploitation program, representing the interests of their respective agencies or departments in the program.

4. It is suggested by CIA that these designees continue to serve as contact personnel at the departmental or agency level on matters related to the exploitation of foreign language publications. Names may be called directly to [redacted] Deputy Chief/FDD [redacted]
